Hanson Fong Presents: FONG Shui -Harmonizing the Art of Posing and Lighting

Hanson will share his top 10 pro tips he has mastered over his 30+ year career. He will discuss about Fong Shui, the art of posing and lighting, which he believes is a lost art. Hanson's vision of his camera technique, including a live demonstration, will enable you to photograph anyone, any couple, or any group under any given lighting situation.

These hands-on posing and lighting techniques will enhance your method of photographing. Hanson will demonstrate the Classic 10 Poses he has pioneered. He will show you how to analyze different body sizes and types. You'll learn to recognize the poses that will give you a proportional balance of any group! His techniques will enable you to pose any family grouping, couple, and bride & groom. Plus, he'll share his secret to the elegant dance of posing that is out of this world: Flow Posing. The late, legendary Rocky Gunn, Hanson's mentor and teacher, inspired his Flow Posing, which has been acknowledged and recognized internationally. In addition, you'll learn lighting and metering methods that will help you photograph under any lighting condition, indoors or outdoors. Proper lighting and posing will help you create highly desirable, beautiful and timeless portraits.

The key element to being a successful photographer is to make people look great. And Hanson does just that! He'll share the secrets of his success with you!
